

The Better Way To Travel.

I'll admit — I'm a little travel-obsessed. I put this obsession to good use for you.

Consider this your sign to use a travel agent (a.k.a me!). I make it dead simple for you to travel like an insider, with killer hotel perks (think upgrades, spa credits...the works ), personalized planning & insider intel — all for the same price as doing the heavy lifting yourself. How? Because CJH Luxury Travel is an affiliate of the Fora Travel Network which means you benefit from Fora's partner relationships.

WHAT IS A TRAVEL ADVISOR?

A travel advisor curates, plans, and books travel. I can create a trip from scratch, or help book a hotel you've already decided on — and everything in between. Plus, I can unlock perks and VIP amenities at hotels, resorts & cruises around the world.

WHY CONSIDER USING A FORA AFFILIATED ADVISOR?

I do the heavy lifting for you. You tell me your needs; I'll leverage Fora's expert travel intel and first-name-basis relationships with general managers to maximize your vacation. I'll match-make you to the perfect hotel for your taste, and ensure you get the very best value for your money.

Not convinced yet? Here's the more info:

1. I won't just save you time and energy, I'll save you money, too.
2. You'll get the inside scoop on everything from what makes a hotel special to why you should order that starter every food critic is raving about.
3. I'll score you awesome perks and upgrades you can't get anywhere else.
4. I'm your direct line to the hotel's management team — in other words, you'll always be treated like the VIP you are.

WHAT TYPE OF TRAVEL CAN YOU BOOK WITH ME?

Anything and everything! From staycations to safaris, I can do it all. Whether it's a one-night staycation in your hometown or a fully planned itinerary to a far-flung destination, I've got you.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

You let me do all of the planning. All I need are the basics: where you want to go (and for how long), the occasion (or lack thereof!), your budget, and what kind of travel you like. I get back to you with travel options based on your preferences and explain any perks available.

Plus, I'll always have a direct line of contact with the hotel, so you can rest assured that all the details have been taken care of.

WHAT PERKS CAN I OFFER YOU?

At Fora, we pride ourselves on our relationships with hotels worldwide. While not every hotel offers perks, we have a wide network of hotels that offer perks such as:

- Complimentary breakfast
- Early check-in / late check-out
- Room upgrades
- Welcome amenities (think drinks on arrival, a fruit basket, a welcome note, etc.)
- Credit to spend at the hotel.

HOW MUCH DOES MY SERVICE COST?

I can book most hotels at no extra cost to you — plus you get all those Fora Perks. Hotels pay advisors for each booking (same as the big booking sites).

As with any attentive and professional service, one expects to pay a fee to receive the value added from the years of education and experience of the professional advisor. The best travel advisors will always charge a professional fee for the time, love, and attention to detail put into every trip they design. You can find fee information on my website
